The Communication Studies – CST 1010 Fundamentals of Speech course builds students' confidence communicating with a live, immediate audience by emphasizing speech delivery skills, audience and message organization, use of supporting material, and building of credibility. The CST 1010 course includes in-classroom and out-of-classroom activities that provide students with opportunities to practice and receive feedback on their communication skills. The course also includes a variety of assignments that require students to apply their communication skills in a variety of contexts.
