

5. A standing CLAE Academic Grievance Committee composed of faculty, administration, and 2 students will review all formal submissions in the case and may meet with the student and faculty member to review relevant issues. The committee may hold a grievance hearing. There may be a separate meeting with the student and faculty member, unless both parties agree to a joint meeting.

6. The Committee will prepare a written recommendation, which shall be regarded as the final resolution of the matter within the college². The written Committee recommendation must be submitted to the Dean within thirty (30) days of receiving the student and the faculty member within fifteen (15) days of the conclusion of the hearing(s). This recommendation will be communicated by letter the

Notes

¹If the Department Chair is grieved and the department does not have a procedure in place for reviewing grievances against the chair, the Dean selects a faculty member (designate) for the Department.

²Accountability and contractual responsibility for academic evaluation, the Grievance Committee may recommend but cannot compel a change of grade.

Grade Grievance Overview

In some instances, a student may believe that the final grade received in a particular course is unjustified. In such cases the student may choose to appeal the grade received. In the College of Liberal Arts & Education, students are advised to consult with the instructor concerned prior to beginning the appeals process. All appeals must be filed in a timely manner, within 30 days after the final grade is issued.
