

JOB HAZARD ANALYSIS

Student Band Saws Use

| TASK | HAZARDS | CONTROLS |
|------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Select appropriate stock to be manipulated. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Uneven, non-durable, or brittle stock may shatter and fling debris or entrap the user. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Hands on training and requiring shop instructor to provide guidance on the stock that is to be used by the student. |
| 2. Position material on table. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Pinching of fingers and or hands. - Oscillating Blade. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Keep hands and fingers clear of blade when cutting material. |
| 3. Adjust Blade guard to proper height for material. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Damage to the equipment and or user if not set correctly. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Use hand guards. |
| 4. Set speed for material. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Body injury and or damage to work piece. | |
| | | |
| | | |
